

References

L-182

1. Heim S, Mitelman F. Nonrandom chromosome abnormalities in cancer - an overview. In: Heim S, Mitelman F, eds. Cancer Cytogenetics. Hoboken, NJ: John Wilkey and Sons, Inc.; 2009:25-44.
2. Gisselsson D. Cytogenetic methods. In: Heim S, Mitelman F, eds. Cancer Cytogenetics. Hoboken, NJ: John Wilkey and Sons, Inc.; 2009:9-16.
3. National Comprehensive Cancer Network. Guidelines for treatment of cancer by site: acute myeloid leukemia (v.2.2016), chronic myelogenous leukemia (v.1.2016), multiple myeloma (v.3.2016), myelodysplastic syndromes (v.1.2017), and non-Hodgkin's lymphoma (v.2.2016).
4. American College of Medical Genetics. Standards and guidelines for clinical genetics laboratories: clinical cytogenetics. 2009 edition, revised January 2010.
5. American College of Medical Genetics. Section E6.1-6.4 of the ACMG technical standards and guidelines: chromosome studies of neoplastic blood and bone marrow – acquired chromosomal abnormalities. 2016.